Food Trucks at the Fare 2019 sponsored by SAUCE magazine

Location: Government Drive - World's Fair Pavilion - Forest Park

Estimated Attendance: 35,000

Dates & Times: Friday, August 16th 5pm to 10pm
Saturday, August 17th 11am to 9pm
Sunday, August 18th 11am to 9pm

These times reflect open festival hours only.*

The Details: We will provide a first class culinary experience while representing a diverse collection of local and global cuisines ranging in ethnic flavor and style.

In order to maintain the highest standards in showcasing your establishment the following guidelines are necessary of those wishing to participate.

- Each food truck will submit a final menu (with pricing) prior to the World's Fare. In the event of menu item duplication, priority to serve particular item will be given to the earliest received application.
- Each food truck may sell non-alcoholic drinks throughout the weekend
- Each vendor must possess a current valid copy of their Fire, Health and Safety permits to comply with city and county health department codes.
- All vendors must have current liability insurance listing The St. Louis World's Fare as an additionally insured for the duration of the event.
- All vendors are required to have a temporary food permit for the day(s) they will be at the Fare. Permit fees are $50/day and applications must be submitted at least 2 days prior to the event.
- The St. Louis World's Fare reserves the right to photograph/video all vendors and anyone they employ including interactions with guests, food prep, and any food/product served.
- The St. Louis World's Fare reserves the right to restrict vendors with respect to inappropriate display materials and/or operations.
- Vendors will be prohibited from possessing alcohol, illegal drugs or other intoxicants on or anywhere near the St. Louis World's Fare.
- Each truck may leave ONE trash bag of waste and any recyclable boxes/cardboard to be removed by our staff at the end of the day. (8:30-9:30pm and please flatten boxes)
- First come, first to park. No assigned spots
- We love our Mother Earth so NO Styrofoam

Things to Bring: All participants must provide their own kitchen and serving equipment, along with any other equipment needed to satisfy local health and fire department safety codes and service needs. We highly recommend single stream recycling products and we encourage our vendors to use biodegradable utensils and packaging.

St. Louis World's Fare will provide:

- Event marketing throughout the city and beyond from local media outlets to mass social media marketing, as well as, network advertising and grassroots efforts through our sponsors, local businesses, shops, schools, and community centers.
- Listed on Food Trucks @ the fare based advertising and name inclusion on 20,000 fliers.
- Name, Logo, and hyperlink on the St. Louis World's Fare Website.

Signup fee for all food trucks include marketing of your business as Fare attendee, event entertainment, trash collection, grease/gray water collection, ice delivery, security, and recycling.
